- 🏆 Year 8 Boys placed 3rd

CONGRATULATIONS

At a Conference in Australia in the holidays Miss Kirstie Nash was THE Recipient of 'AUSTSWIM TEACHER OF THE YEAR – New Zealand.' The AUSTSWIM 2023 Awards of Excellence acknowledge individuals for contributing to aquatic education and water safety through leadership, innovation, and community spirit. The awards recognise brilliance, commitment, and innovation in teaching swimming and water safety. It is an incredible service to the industry to be nominated and awarded the AUSTSWIM TEACHER OF THE YEAR for 2023 in New Zealand.

RPS is very proud and privileged to have Miss Nash as a member of our RPS whānau and overseeing our school swimming programme.

Congratulations to the following tamariki in Yrs 1 - 4 who achieved 100%:

Ranvir Singh, Kayden Sean, Isaac Kheav, Haashid Alvi, Mila Matiu, John Pelaez, Amaris Tafa, Isaiah Raj, Ayansh Raj, Ayat Al-Mathhachi, Aliyanna Witton-Hati, Trishan Kumar, Edith Vaiaia, Nova Rhodes, Dhairya Sefo Singh, Lance Witton-Hati, Te Hanahana Ripata, Jasman Singh, Myiehsa Ammara, Sapphire Malaeolototo, Manveer Singh, Mitz Nacario, Fateh Bhandal, Mia Nikora, Sargundeep Kaur, and Anna On.

Are you travelling overseas?

We encourage travelling during the school holidays, where possible, it is important for tamariki to continue their learning during the school term. Unless there is a family event eg, illness, family bereavement etc, we want all our tamariki here every day when possible.

If you need to travel overseas, please send a copy of your plane tickets (departure and arrival dates) via email to absences@randwickpark.school.nz or call into our school office.

Policy and

Procedure Reviews

Reviews are open to our board, staff, students, and school community (parents/whānau).
